

Camel

Camels in the Bible. God created camels to help people in many ways, especially if they were traveling through the desert. Camels were used often in Bible times when traveling from one place to another. Camels were very fast, they did not tire out very easily. They can go days and days without any water. Having lots of camels was a symbol of great wealth.